COMMUNICATION TO U.S. PTO

ASSISTANT COMMISSIONER OF PATENTS
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20231

Dear Sir:

In a telephone conversation on April 11, 2001 Group Supervisor Examiner Gary Kunz inquired regarding the receipt by Applicants of an Office Action alleged to be forwarded by the U.S. PTO on February 12, 1999 with respect to the instant Application USSN 08/599,974. As indicated in said telephone conversation and confirmed and asserted by this communication, Applicants' representatives received no Office Action on or about February 12, 1999 and have in fact received no Office Action, Notice or other written communication from the U.S. PTO since Applicants' mailing July 7, 1998 of a response to a first Office Action dated January 7, 1998 and receipt of the stamped receipt postcard from the PTO with regard to the July 1998 amendment.

In demonstration of the above, Applicants provide herewith a Declaration by Anne E. Marchesani, the docket clerk for Applicants' representative, along with attached

Exhibits, representing and evidencing that Applicants have received no written communication, Office Action or Notice from the U.S. PTO with respect to the instant Application USSN 08/599,974 since the mailing of Applicants' amendment on July 7, 1998. Applicants submit that no asserted February 12, 1999 Office Action or other Office Action or Notice has been received by Applicants' representative since the mailing of Applicants' amendment July 7, 1998 and that the instant Application is properly pending and not abandoned. Applicants solicit early and favorable action on the pending claims.

Respectfully submitted,

KLAUBER & JACKSON
